OVERVIEW

The GLOBAL PRIDE SUMMIT is a first of its kind, online, FREE conference serving the LGBTQA world. Intentionally launching at www.globalpridesummit.com on June 1 through June 5, 2015, the summit will coincide with PRIDE celebrations throughout the United States and beyond.

Created by internationally recognized inspirational gay, thought leader and author, Mark Anthony Lord, the Summit brings together some of the greatest LGBTQA celebrities, teachers, business leaders, healers, coaches, s/heroes and artists.

The five-day conference promises inspirational personal stories that will help LGBT people all over the globe grow in courage and self-acceptance, tools to build self-esteem and personal empowerment and knowledge to create empathy and compassion among the community itself.

Mark Anthony Lord, creator and host of the Summit has been inspired by his own transformation and keen understanding of the limitations of support systems for those seeking personal pride. "My youth was filled with self-hatred and rejection and today I know what it means to fully love myself. I want every LGBT person to know that for themselves."

He sees the globally accessible on-line approach as an opportunity to serve every LGBT person. He adds, "We're done with the world making us feel bad about ourselves – that we are wrong or unacceptable to God. This summit says game over to shame and fear."

In addition to the full line-up of speakers, on-line attendees will also be invited to participate in live webinars each night, asking questions and sharing personal insights about the theme of the day with host, Mark Anthony Lord.

The Matthew Shepard Foundation (www.matthewshepard.org) and Athlete Ally (www.athleteally.org) proudly endorse the conference.

ABOUT

The Global Pride Summit empowers LGBT people to awaken to the truth - that you are perfect as you are. It gives you the tools to transform, the support you need to make positive changes, and a global community of like-minded LGBTQA people who are on the same path of personal growth and celebration of who we are.

During this Summit you will be inspired by some of the leading LGBTQA thought leaders, teachers, activists, and celebrities of our time.

They will help you:

Grow in self-love and acceptance

Surrender any remnants of old or current beliefs that you are not enough, or flawed because of being LGBT

Ignite courage to stand strong in who you are here to be

Know you are never alone - you belong, and you matter!

This Summit stands on three premises. 1.) The LGBT world is a perfect, necessary part of humanity. 2.) Inherent within all LGBT people is the freedom, personal power, love and acceptance that they are seeking. 3.) We need each other. In coming together we can and will create a greater world for ourselves, each other, and the world.

Sign up today at www.globalpridesummit.com. You've got nothing to lose and everything to gain. And please, feel free to share with us. We welcome your questions, insights, and constructive comments.
